

Kevin Clark

www.kclarkjazz.com

GRAMMY nominated trumpeter, Kevin Clark, is rated "one of the top New Orleans trumpet players" by Gambit Weekly, New Orleans. Downbeat Magazine regards "Impressive capacity for heat & power". Toronto Star states "excellent trumpeter" & "trumpeter extraordinaire". Ottawa Sun proclaims "Blistering Trumpet!". Credos from New Orleans legends Al Hirt & Pete Fountain say "A great musician" & "A great trumpeter with a warm New Orleans sound". Kevin has toured the United States, Europe, South America, Russia, Asia, Middle East, the Caribbean, Bermuda, and Canada. Kevin has recorded and/or toured with Rhythm & Blues legend Clarence "Gatemouth" Brown, New Orleans own clarinetist Pete Fountain, The Dukes of Dixieland, the New Orleans Nightcrawlers Brass Band, Preservation Hall Jazz Band, and country artists Junior Brown & Lee Greenwood. His solo C/D's are New Orleans Trumpet & New Orleans Jazz Brunch (Summit Records), The Crescent City Moonlighters Big Band (BOSE), Kevin Clark and the Jazz Revelation (gospel) & Kevin Clark's Jazz Kitchen (featuring original tunes and a CDROM cookbook of original recipes). Music Festivals that have programmed Kevin Clark include: New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Festival, Naute France Music festival, Nottodden Jazzfest, Helsinki Jazzfest, Cancun Jazz Festival, Bermuda Music Festival, Toronto Jazzfest, Cincinatti Pops, Rochester Philharmonic & The Florida Orchestra. Kevin now resides with his family in Toronto, Ontario and currently performs at The Distillery District in Downtown Toronto.